

We hope that you will be able to join COMPETE and The Energy Daily for a policymaker breakfast on Tuesday, October 7, 2008 at the Phoenix Park Hotel in Washington, D.C. The event features a keynote address by FERC Commissioner Suedeen Kelly.

To RSVP, please email malina@competecoalition.com or call 202-745-6331.

TOMORROW'S POWER:

A discussion on competition, innovation
and our energy future.

Keynote address by FERC Commissioner Suedeen Kelly

COMPETE and The Energy Daily invite you to an October 7, 2008 policymaker breakfast on the ability of competitive electricity markets to address many of the nation's future challenges.

Participants in a panel discussion will address consumer views on environmental/sustainability initiatives, demand response, efficiency and capacity factor gains, renewable energy growth, and plug-in vehicle initiatives.

WHO: Keynote address by FERC Commissioner Suedeen Kelly

Panelists:

Steven G. Chalk, Deputy Assistant Secretary for Renewable Energy, U.S. Department of Energy

Kenneth M. Huber, Manager, Advanced Technologies, PJM Interconnection

Bill Massey, Former FERC Commissioner

George Waidelich, Vice President, Energy Operations, Safeway

Sue Wallace, Vice President, Management Projects, Exelon Generation

Dr. Eric C. Woychik, Vice President, Regulatory Affairs, Comverge, Inc.

WHEN: October 7th 8:30am-10:30am

WHERE: The Phoenix Park Hotel
520 North Capitol Street N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20001

Please RSVP at malina@competecoalition.com or 202.745.6331.

Electricity Competition IS the Public Interest